PAUL'S NOTE

The Weekly Newsletter will be short this week. There are a few housekeeping items I want to get to.

The Ward 2 office will be closed on both Thursday and Friday this week. This also means that the cashier window will be closed as well.

Next week's council meeting will be on Monday instead of Tuesday. We will be swearing in my three colleagues who were re-elected earlier this month. At 10 am we swear in the council over at the TCC. We get back together later at 2 for a study session, followed by our regular session at 5:30.

I will be celebrating both Hanukkah and Thanksgiving this week with my family. I hope that no matter how you celebrate that it will be a joyous holiday for you and those you love.

Many organizations that help people in our community already have their Thanksgiving events planned, but this is a good time to think about how you will help over the holiday season and, hopefully, beyond. If you are looking for ideas, here are a few organizations in the community who are always looking for help. This isn't meant to be a complete list, but just to give you an idea or two.
